

Food Generators: Where to Donate Your Food

Who should donate their food?
Businesses that produce, sell, and serve food must arrange to recover and donate the maximum amount of edible food that would otherwise be thrown away. These businesses are classified as Tier 1 and Tier 2 food generators.

Food recovery organizations and services
Organizations accepting food donations can be found by visiting Fresno County’s food recovery web page at Cleanupfresnocounty.com/food-recycling/commercial-edible-food-generators. Connect with a Food Recovery Service to assist with establishing your food donation program.

What is required of my business?

If you are a Tier 1 or Tier 2 business, you must enter into a written agreement or contract with a food recovery service(s) or organization(s) to collect or receive your edible food. Maintain records of the following:

- Types of food donated
- Pounds donated per month
- Frequency of donations
- Name, address and contact information of the contracted food recovery service(s) and/or organization(s)
- Businesses shall not intentionally spoil food that can be recovered
- Large venues or large event operators shall require food facilities operating on-site to comply with the food recovery requirements

If you are not a Tier 1 or Tier 2 business, you do not need to sign up for food donation. We encourage you to sign up for this optional service.
